Hi,
I have yet to take CS50 so you probably don't know me, but I have a joke for you:

Q: Why did the computer programmer get upset when he forgot how to program?
A: Because he had to start again from Scratch!

And now, back to my math pset.

“cs50. FML”
I have already broken down in tears because of cs50, and it was only the first part of pset1. FML.
Normally when I go to class I leave the classroom feeling like I’ve learned something and am smarter than when I entered. Unfortunately for CS 50, every day going to class simply means learning how much I don’t know and I leave the class feeling less wise than upon entering. FML
