Schedule

Most lectures take place at Harvard in Sanders Theatre on Mondays and Wednesdays from 1pm until 2pm. (Four lectures will take place at Yale.) All lectures are live-streamed online and are available on demand immediately thereafter. Because of shopping period and university holidays, the course meets on just a few Fridays as well. Here's a sketch of CS50's first two weeks:

- First lecture is at Harvard on Wed 9/2.
- Second lecture is at Yale on Fri 9/4. Be sure to watch at cs50.harvard.edu either live or on demand before Wed 9/9.
- Third lecture is at Harvard on Wed 9/9.
- Fourth lecture is at Harvard on Fri 9/11.

Thereafter, every lecture except one (Fri 10/16) is on a Monday or Wednesday.

Simultaneous Enrollment

Ordinarily, you may not enroll in courses that meet at the same time or overlapping times. However, you may enroll in CS50 and another course whose meetings overlap fully or partially with CS50's lectures (and quizzes). To do so, enroll in the other course via my.harvard.edu, and then email enrollment@fas.harvard.edu to have CS50 added to your study card as well. You do not need anyone's permission or signature, and you do not need to petition the Administrative Board.
