

Facebook Puzzle Hunt

fb.me/harvardpuzzle

- There are nine puzzles for you to solve. Each puzzle stands alone and can be solved independently of the other puzzles.
- The answer to each puzzle is a single word or short phrase.
- Form your teams and submit your answers on the Puzzle Hunt Page. You can find digital copies of the puzzles there as well.
- Feel free to use the internet and any other non-human resources available to you.
- Teams should consist of 2-4 people.
- Remember that everything, including the title can be a hint to the solution to a puzzle.
- Have fun!

Bard's Arithmetic

- A: My glass shall not persuade me I am old.
 B: Breathed forth the sound that said 'I hate.'
 C: To say they err I dare not be so bold,
 D: Ruin hath taught me thus to ruminare.
 E: But thou, contracted to thine own bright eyes,
 F: Which, like a jewel hung in ghastly night,
 G: So, till the judgment that yourself arise.
 H: And sweets grown common lose their dear delight,
 I: How would thy shadow's form form happy show?
 J: In me thou seest the twilight of such day.
 K: But heavy tears, badges of either's woe.
 L: If any, be a satire to decay,
 M: O, never say that I was false of heart,
 N: And, constant stars, in them I read such art

$$K - A + I - E : \quad J - G - N + H - L : \quad C - F + M - B - D$$
